CLASS OF 1953

NEWSLETTER
News & Events for our Class

Dear Classmates and Families,
Here is our latest newsletter to pass on news of our classmates and their families. These are the difficult times when so many of us are passing on but there is comfort in sharing our stories with one another and to stay in touch with families at their pleasure.

2021 VERSION

Dear Classmates, Widows, Children and Grandchildren of the Great Class of 1953.

This is your periodic newsletter that we have been emailing for decades, but with one exception; we have not received any news from the '53 family for several months, probably because of the upheaval from all the Pandemic issues, or whatever, and we would like to continue that news to the Class and families regularly. Please take a moment and jot down some things you would like to share with the 53 Family and email it on to me at dghalloran53@gmail.com and we will publish your news to the class when we have received several inputs. Pictures are most welcome too, and while our '53 family includes 140 or so of us brothers still on this side of the sod as my grandpa used to say, even more widows estimated to be about 170, we also have many fabulous children and grandchildren from whom we have received letters and pictures and they are just delightful. I think all will enjoy this new twist. And we will also continue to report the regular news when we receive some from all sources and here is the first one from your editor who is the proud grandpa of an All

Carolina Conference basketball star player, Sean Halloran, class of '22 from Belmont Abbey College, Belmont, North Carolina where they captured the league championship and have gone on to the Carolinas Basketball Tournament and with high expectation to continue on to the Nationals in April.. Sean is the smallest guy on the team at 6feet 2inches, but the team captain and a 73 percent 3 point shooter and a bullet passing playmaker of exciting proportions, and he is also an honor student majoring in Digital Technology. He has a burning desire to be a College Basketball Coach and we just know he will achieve that goal. That is the kind of family news we would love to hear from you as well so don't be bashful, write a plain ole letter and we will doll it and the pictures up if necessary and publish your loving news in '53 Out, I consulted the great Don Goss in a meditation session on this matter and received the OK from the Great Communicator..

Blessings to all and Viva La '53. Your Scribe, Dave
